

Images from the pollinator garden at the Page-Walker Arts & History Center

Month of May 2020

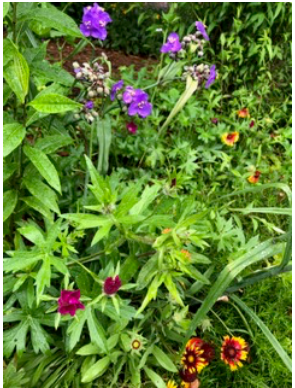

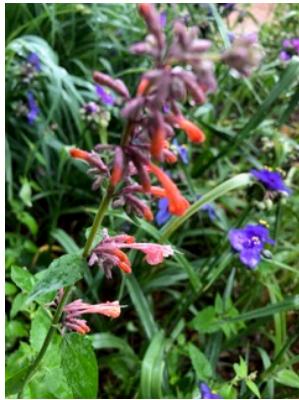

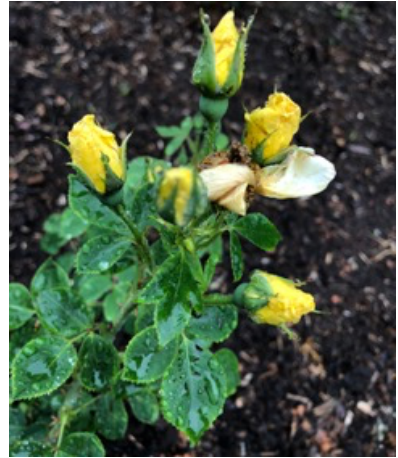

Page Down for More

Month of June 2020

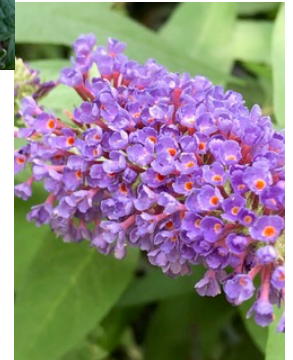

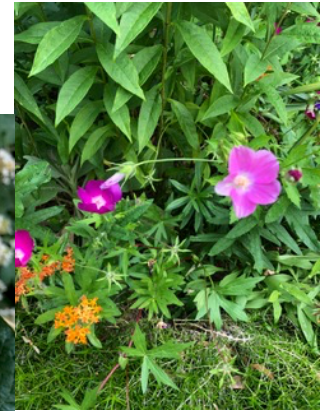

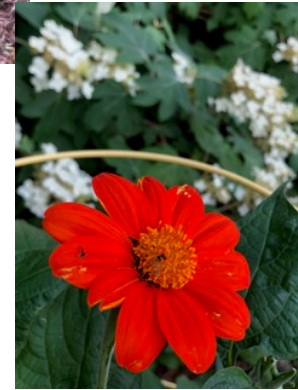

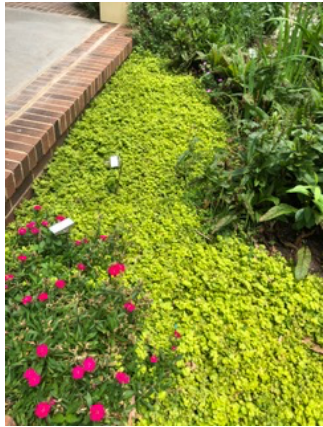

Page Down for More

Month of July 2020

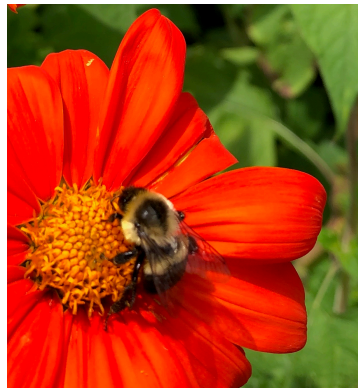

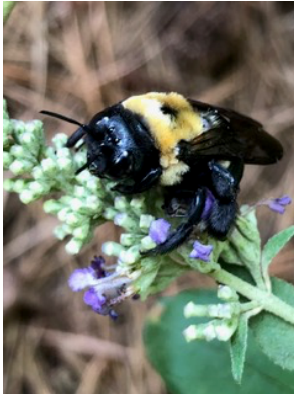

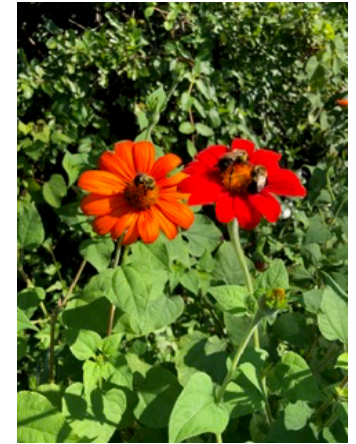

Page Down for More

Month of August 2020

Cary Woman's Club Pollinator Garden Volunteers – Lois and Deborah in their COVID=19 face masks bid the garden farewell for the summer.

Lois also bids farewell to Deborah as she is leaving Cary to move to Maine.

More on next page

October 2020

Male and female Monarch butterflies are enjoying feasting on the Thithonia. Male is the one with two small dots on lines near the body, at the lower end of wings. Female looks like her lines were added with darker eyeliner.

